

Our Silver Hawk Community:

We would like to invite you to participate in our 2017-2018 Homecoming Parade! In lieu of a Homecoming Pep Rally, Lake Howell High School will be having a parade on Friday, November 3, 2017. The parade begins at 1:35pm at Tuskawilla Middle School and will end at Lake Howell High School at 2:15pm.

Parade Goal

The goal of the homecoming parade is to promote school spirit and pride. This goal is reinforced by school and community clubs and organizations of Lake Howell High School visually showing how much they support the youth of our community.

Parade Expectations

Floats or marching units, etc. should show support for the Lake Howell Silver Hawks and not have their own self interest (i.e. political units).

Floats should be themed to represent this year's homecoming theme: Empire State of Mind.

Entries will be responsible for any waste, garbage or debris.

Safety should be of utmost concern for people involved with the entry and should not pose any threat to the volunteers and spectators.

Throwing of candy is strictly prohibited. Candy must be passed out by walking participants.

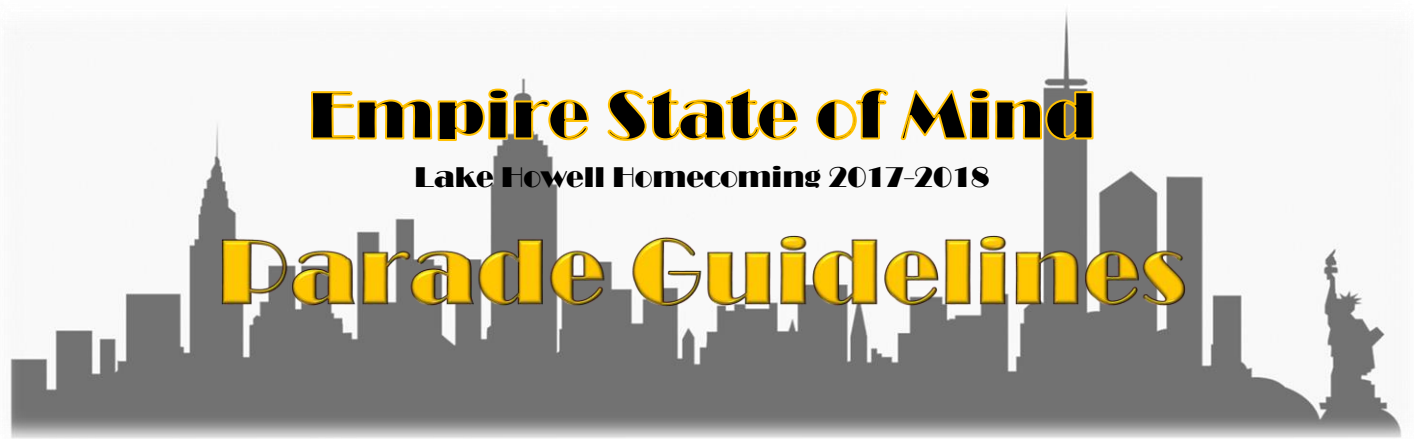

Profanity, alcohol, tobacco, and references to them are prohibited.

This packet includes the Parade Guidelines, Parade Entry Form, and the Parade Agreement. Please review each item carefully. Any questions should be direction to Lake Howell Student Government Association and Ms. Dopson (Detra_Dopson@scps.k12.fl.us).

The success of this parade depends on you and your organization. We are looking forward to a successful parade and appreciate your support of Lake Howell High School!

Go Silver Hawks!
